

The Democratic State convention in Ohio last week nominated Governor Hoadly for re-election and adopted a platform recommending high license for sale of liquors and evading the tariff issue.

In this issue will be found the address of Hon. Charles L. Wedding, delivered at the Grant memorial service held in Evansville. It is eloquent and brim full of patriotism and information. We are proud that Ohio county produced such a man as Mr. Wedding.

The Hartford Herald makes a very spirited and vigorous reply to our invitation for it to come back into the Democratic party. It is very sure over the move majority given to the Democratic nominee for Treasurer, but does not say it is sorry for having supported the Prohibition nominee. Well, let it stay out till the weather grows too cold. It must come in at last.—Yonon.

The Yonon has more self conceit, egotism and arrogance than a city dude. It is vain enough to imagine that it is the head and front, body and breeches of the Democratic party of the State—the Grand Gynecitis with regal power to sit in judgment on all the Democratic papers, politicians and voters of the State, and turn them out and reinstate them at will. It read the HERALD out of the Democratic party in 1882 because it refused to support "Tom" Henry. It read it out again this year because it refused to support Tate, and yet we are in the party, have been in it since we were old enough, and are not out yet. We are not sure over that 65,000 majority for Tate. In 1883 Tate, nominated by a convention, received 131,968 votes. This year he received only 107,000, nearly 25,000 votes less than two years ago, and it seems that if anybody should feel sore over the matter it would be the Yonon and the ring of six men who nominated Mr. Tate. We have not said we were sorry for having supported Judge Fox and don't expect to, for it is not true. Instead, we are proud of having voted against Tate and for Fox. We are warm as we wish to be, not out in the cold, and hence cannot come in.

The Yonon is a little off, sort of cranky. The court having jurisdiction should have a jury summoned and send the poor thing to the feeble-minded institute—not to the lunatic asylum, for it never had brains enough to become a lunatic.

Kicking Out of the Traces.
Ohio is the only county in this Congressional district that gave a majority for Fox for State Treasurer. When the Democratic struggle was in Ohio, and the HERALD is continually kicking itself outside of the party traces, hence the majority for Mr. Fox.—Editorial Notes News.

We thought Democracy taught freedom of speech, freedom of thought, freedom of action; the largest individual liberty consistent with the public good. We considered it not only a privilege, but the duty of a Democratic editor to criticize the action of his party, party candidates and officials. We did not know, until informed by the News, that Democratic journalists were hatched up in harness like work beasts and had to pull to suit the driver.

We see there are a few in the State, the News for example, that have not independence enough to think and act for themselves or to call their souls own, who are partisan slaves and dare not have or express an opinion of their own, but are in the traces and wait for the crack of the party whip, the order of the party driver, and obey as submissively as an abject slave or beast of burden. We are not one of that class. We never were in the traces to kick out, and more, we do not intend to be. We have notions of our own and dare to express them, and if the News don't like it, it can take the less of it.

The Old Kentucky Home.
Every Kentuckian loves Kentucky and his old Kentucky home. Indeed, we have a tolerably fertile climate, a vast amount of fertile soil, some magnificent forests, a superabundance of minerals, some fast horses, a few fast women—and a number of beautiful ones—and many gallons of good whisky (if the adjective good may be applied to it at all).

Yet, with all these "resources," we make but little advancement in the way of healthy progress and true greatness. We are behind in education, and in agriculture. We follow in old routine ruts, and are too conservative—and conservatism is cowardly.

I believe that the impediments are these: We are just a little too fond of our women, horses and whisky; and too blamed hands with firearms.

O, the sweet vales, the rippling brooks, the sweet-scented meadows, the cool shades of our old Kentucky home! Yet, notwithstanding our fertile soil, our rich ores and our beautiful sylvan scenes, our people seem to be on the decline, as to progress and greatness; to say nothing of our great decadence in morals.

Our material well-being is, perhaps, good enough. But are our public men as truthful and honest as were our public men in days of yore? Are our men as chivalrous, our women as virtuous as were the fathers and mothers of the Commonwealth? Are we as hospitable, as religious and as full of human sympathy and charity for our fellow creatures as our grandfathers were? No, no! for we have not the firmness, the dignity and openness they had. We worship a gross materialism, we love display, we hanker after fashion, and we are not as devoid of deception and humbug as were the old fathers of our State.

About the worst exhibition of conservatism (if it were not the want of common sense) which we have been guilty of, is, our failure to revise an old-slavery-obsolete constitution. If we did, there would be fewer "fast women," less whisky-drinking, and more self-control.

From vice begot by whisky and horse, From over-indulgence of women fair, We bury many and many a corpse; The star of Hope fades afar, And morality and religion die, Because true reform Kentucky denies.

Rockport Ky.
August 24, 1885.

Editor Herald:
Uncle Robert Southard died after a few days' illness, on the 19th inst.

The following teachers have secured schools, and will soon begin to flourish the birch and tutor young ideas: Messrs. Ellis Maddox at Point Pleasant, S. W. Taylor at No. 18, near Mr. William Ashby's, and Jas. Taylor, of Butler county, at the White Hall, or what is known as the Rockport school house. No teacher has been employed to take this school.

Jack Smith has moved from McHenry back to his property here. Mr. W. A. Smith left for Decatur, Ill., via Louisville, Wednesday. May his trip be a safe and pleasant one.

Mrs. O. P. Hill has returned home. Misses Nora and Bessie Wallace, who have been spending the summer with their aunt, Mrs. Bettie Wallace, of Paradise, after a few days' visit here, left for their home in New Albany, Ind., last week. Sir Thomas Browne said: "There's music in the heart, and the silent note which Cupid strikes is far sweeter than the sound of an instrument." Maybe so. At any rate the editor of the C. C. Argus, who captured Muhlenberg county last election, has been in turn captured and dragged off into bondage, by gracious!

Mrs. Bentley and her niece, Miss Morrow, have gone to Russellville, the latter to attend school.

Miss Katie Martin, formerly of Rockport, but now of the city of Henderson, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Benton. Warren Duke, of Evansville, came up after his wife and little son, Warren, last week. Warren has not been well for several days, hence their return to Evansville was delayed.

Some of our Die-Tamers have felt the shoe, which Mr. Cundiff fitted on in his last week's article, and have requested me to reply. Now, I have taken none of it to myself, simply because it does not apply, but I shall not shrink to tell why I voted for Tate and why I am a natural born Democrat. So if you will afford me the space next week, I will say something that has not been heard for ages—things which many a Democrat never heard from sheer mercy things which many a man, who thinks he is a Republican never knew, and yet thinks as true as holy writ. I say things he is a Republican because I deny that a Kentuckian can be a full blooded Republican; for they grow where only on that old old Plymouth Rock. I fully realize why preacher and pronounced temperance men voted for Fox and I think they did just right. But Tate's little majority of 75,000 proves him a very proper man, who has held the office so long simply because no body can beat him—however just give me me room and air next week and I shall be.

Soldiers Reason.
There will be a meeting of the old soldiers of Ohio county, on the 29th day of September, 1885, at the new Fair Grounds. A meeting will be held at Hartford, on Saturday next, to make the necessary arrangements. As the 12th Cavalry, 26th, 35th and 17th Regiments of Infantry were mostly raised in Ohio county, a grand turn-out may be expected. Among other things, a battle monument has been proposed in honor of the above Regiments.

Shot While Resisting Arrest.
AUBURN, KY., Aug. 22.—Town Marshal Wm. Guion shot and perhaps fatally wounded a negro by the name of Joe Beauchamp, near the colored Baptist church, this morning. Guion had a warrant for the arrest of Beauchamp, who had committed some petty offense against the town laws. The negro resisted, and threatened to hit Guion with a large club, whereupon the probably fatal shot was fired. The weapon used was a shotgun, loaded with buck-shot.

Kentucky Patents.
The following patents were granted for the week ending Aug. 18, 1885, reported expressly for this paper by Jos. H. Hunter, Solicitor of American and Foreign Patents, 936 F Street, Washington, D. C.:

C. W. Williams, Cave City, railway telegraph; Fritz Grathwohl, Covington, maiter; E. B. Hess, Louisville, electro magnetic car brake; C. W. Metcalf, Hopkinsville, saw mill set works; T. G. Hanbery & J. D. Wall, Newstead, harness attachment.

STATE NEWS.

"Old Mat," the famous colored guide who has been employed in Mammoth Cave for 47 years, died last week.

Capitalists are surveying the route for a railroad from Cave City to Mammoth Cave, twelve miles over a very rough country.

The former proceedings against Dave Lawson, of Hancock county, for cutting Hon. George Smith, being deemed irregular, he was arraigned again before two magistrates on Tuesday, and was held over under $3,000 bail. It is reported that a strong case was made out against Lawson.—Messenger.

R. S. McMillon, our newly appointed postmaster, received his commission yesterday morning, and will probably take charge of the office this week. He has built with his own hands, since receiving the appointment and waiting the acceptance of his bond, a complete set of lock and call boxes, and will open in the cozy little building lately occupied by Dr. T. E. Powell as well as just above R. W. Crabbs store.—Union Local.

The Covington Commonwealth says: "At the annual election on the 3d inst. a vote was taken in several precincts on the question of a special school tax for the district. With rare exceptions the tax was voted down. The friends of common education may regret this, but it is probable the people think they are taxed about as much as they can well bear. Besides this a good many intelligent tax payers are dissatisfied with the mode in which the regular tax for the support of common schools is collected and distributed. Instead of being disbursed directly in the counties in which it is collected—as it ought to be—it is sent to Frankfort, there manipulated, and then sent back to the counties, less the amount set apart for pauper counties, and the cost of handling, among the unjust results of which is the delay in paying teachers' salaries. If the present school tax were judiciously husbanded and properly distributed, it is probable that it would meet all just requirements."

Beaver Dam Notes.
August 24th, 1885.

Editor Herald:
Mrs. Sallie Johnson departed this life at the residence of her son, Mr. Elijah Johnson, near Liberty church, on Tuesday evening, the 18th inst. Aunt Sallie, as she was familiarly known and called by everybody in the community, was the oldest person in the community and one of the oldest in the county, being about 89 years old. She was born in the county of Bourbon, and passed the early part of her life in that county, but for a number of years had lived in this county. She was a sister of Mr. Eli Chalmers, one of the old men of the county. She had been a widow for many years, and was a devoted, consistent member of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Callie Austin, wife of Burgess Austin, and daughter of Burwell Chick, died at her husband's residence near this place, on Wednesday evening last, the 19th inst. She had long been in a feeble state, and her death was expected. She was a devoted member of the Baptist church, and was buried in the cemetery at this place on Thursday, with funeral services by Rev. D. J. K. Maddox.

Dr. H. F. Bean, of Point Pleasant, has bought the property of Mr. G. T. Oliver, on Main street, and will locate here in a few weeks.

Miss Emma Newell returned home Saturday evening, after an extended visit to Daviess county.

Several of our denizens betook themselves to the White Sulphur Springs on Saturday last, and returned Sunday evening.

The extended drought and parched crops and pastures are inducing the people to sell off surplus stock.

We learn that the people of our neighboring town, McHenry, are hauling water for washing purposes from Lewis and Rough creeks.

The people here have had the Berger well cleaned out, and are taking steps to have it so improved that it will furnish an inexhaustible supply of very superior water.

All sums of $10 or under cash in hand, all over $10 on a credit of six months with approved security. Sale will begin at 2 o'clock p. m., promptly.

J. H. WELLES,
321 Administrator.

On Wednesday, September 16th, 1885, at the late residence of Levi Taylor, deceased, I will offer for sale at Public Auction, one mare and colt, two mules, twenty head of cattle, including three milch cows, twenty-five head of hogs, a two-horse wagon, a lot of farming utensils, and household and kitchen furniture. Terms: all sums of five dollars and under, cash in hand; all sums over five dollars, on credit of twelve months with approved security.

SILAS TAYLOR,
34 3d St. Adm'r of LEVI TAYLOR.

It is comfortable, in these days of heat, to read of so cool a place as "Labrador," which will be the subject of the leading illustrated paper in the September Harper's. Mr. C. H. Farnham will tell the story of his cruise in the canoe Allegro along that part of the coast of Labrador on the Gulf of St. Lawrence between the Saguenay and Belle Isle. One of his curious adventures was his meeting with the "county court-house" about on the bay—the yacht Regis, in which the circuit judge makes his yearly rounds. The article will be fully illustrated from Mr. Farnham's sketches.

Truths for Moralists, but not Swill for Swine.

You need not lay the flattering unction to your soul, that by acting a good part—that by the practice of sobriety, charity, diligent duty and gentlemanly—your whole life will be a life of escape from shame or mean disparagement. You will find those who hate you for the virtues and qualities that ought to procure esteem. Some people are not willing that you should be superior, mentally, morally or physically, to themselves.

A gentleman is a gentleman by the grace of God and by self-culture. A ruffian recognizes gentility very readily; and as readily shows his instinctive hatred of a gentleman.

Neither modesty nor courage are doubtful, for the cheeks and the eyes bear witness of them.

Truth is eloquence, and eloquence is truth; for the one wins and convicts, and the other convicts and wins.

Use sound argument; for it will make itself felt by its destruction of sophistical reasoning.

State nothing as a fact, except it be true; for, failure to do this loses you confidence in all things.

There are men, who were once poor and friendless themselves, and who felt low had it been to meet with uncharitable rebuff, now high in wealth, or in station, who fail to have sympathy for any who are climbing the rough steep that they themselves have passed over.

There are women, who, doubting the stability of their own virtue, have no feeling of charity or sorrow for an erring sister.

There are willfully blind and envious folk, who feeling their own mediocrity, can never see talent or recognize genius.

Some people are so full of jealousy that they have mental hallucinations and vague visions, which they take to be truths and realities.

To cheat, to detract, to use the power of circumstance and situation for unjust gain, is just as bad as stealing,—and it is not theft by statutory law, by the moral law it is petit larceny.

Honest work, linked with modest merit, goes begging, while built-headness, allied to impudence, gets the "soft place."

A few men are so stingy that they are afraid they will starve themselves, by letting you eat a single meal at their tables.

Still we have no rain.

On the morning of the 18th inst., as I neared Salem church, Butler county, Ky., I saw people of all ages and sizes and clouds of dust arising in every direction. I saw fields of corn, tobacco, grass, etc., parched with heat and drought. I saw a large number of people at Salem church at 10:30 a. m., and heard Rev. B. W. Neal preaching in a loud voice and saw the people listening with much interest. About 12 o'clock m., I saw the Gasper River association organized with Rev. D. J. K. Maddox as Moderator. I saw Dr. J. S. Coleman, Revs. A. B. Smith and E. H. Maddox, messengers from the Daviess County association. I saw Dr. HENRY RUCKLISH, of Louisville, and heard him speak on missions; I heard Rev. A. B. Smith make a still better speech, I heard Dr. Coleman speak until the very heavens almost declared his voice; I heard Dr. Caperton recommend the Recorder at a discount of 50 cents from the regular price, viz: $2, which is yet 50 cents too much, according to my judgment.

At 1:30 o'clock p. m. I saw the whole woods around bordered with dinner, and a display of generosity, hospitality and liberality unprecedented in the history of this association. I am thankful to the good sisters for the kindness received and especially so to the family of Bro. T. S. Taylor, with whom I stayed. The association adjourned to meet with Sugar Grove church, Muhlenberg county, on the O. & N. R. R. at its next regular session.

No Creek Items.

August 24th, 1885.

Mr. Daniel Williams left last Thursday for Monroe county, where he will make his future home.

Dr. Alex Barnett, of Texas, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for several months past, left last week for Point Pleasant, where he will spend a few days before leaving for Texas.

Prof. J. O. Wallace and wife left a few days since for Hopkins county, where they will be engaged for ten months teaching.

Prof. J. E. Sutton, of Cromwell, is visiting in the neighborhood.

Messrs. E. L. and G. G. Carson are visiting their brother, Mr. C. S. Carson, of Bowling Green, this week.

"Matto," your correspondent at or near India, seems to have a perfect tact for obtaining interesting items for the readers of the HERALD. Very few of your correspondents would undertake to make an "inventory" of the crops this warm weather. This, "Matto" has done, and the disheartened farmers in this vicinity now have the satisfaction of knowing the exact per cent of a crop (?) of corn and tobacco they will raise. Then of course your readers were very much interested (?) to know that some young lady had succeeded in "paralyzing" her (his) heart. Also if girl told her (him) she had company when she had none, we would never have known when how to sympathize with her (him.)

One of our young men is a victim of somnambulism. A short time since, he awoke one morning and found that he had taken possession of the chicken coop. The chickens were quietly sleeping and seemingly had not noticed Mr. D's presence.

A short time since, one of our young men went to call on his girl, and on getting ready to start for home, he caught her mother's horse instead of his own—the night being very dark—and did not find out his mistake for some time. As he passed up the road, he was taken to be a horse-thief, but as he returned the horse when finding out his mistake, nothing was done with him. In justice to Mr. H., we will say that we know him to be an upright young man, and that he had no intention of stealing the horse.

Long live the HERALD and its editor, is the wish of

At 1:30 o'clock p. m. I saw the whole woods around bordered with dinner, and a display of generosity, hospitality and liberality unprecedented in the history of this association. I am thankful to the good sisters for the kindness received and especially so to the family of Bro. T. S. Taylor, with whom I stayed. The association adjourned to meet with Sugar Grove church, Muhlenberg county, on the O. & N. R. R. at its next regular session.

Suffering Women!

Read what the Great Methodist and Eminent Physician Says of
DR. J. BRADFIELD'S
FEMALE REGULATOR!

ATLANTA, GA., Feb. 28, 1884.
DR. J. BRADFIELD: Dear Sir—Some fifteen years ago I examined the recipe of Female Regulator, and carefully studied authorities in regard to its components, and then as you have pronounced it to be the most scientific and skillful combination of the really reliable remedial agents known to science, to act directly on the womb and uterine organs, and the organs and parts emanating directly with these, and, therefore, providing a specific remedy for all for all diseases of the womb, and of the adjacent organs and parts. Yours truly,
JESSE BOWLING, M. D., D. D.

CAUTION!
The country is flooded with cheap nostrums, containing IRON and other injurious ingredients, which claim to cure everything—even Female Complaints. We say to you if you value your life, beware of all such!

Bradfield's Female Regulator is a purely vegetable compound, and is only intended for the FEMALE SEX. For their peculiar diseases it is an absolute.

If You Want to be Happy.
If you want to be happy you must be good, to maximize all right in its way. But a far better one, if understood, is what I have now got to say. If you want to be happy you must be well. Whatever the station you serve in, and of all the medicines one bears the head, the good Samaritan Service.

I once tried every sort of cure. To reach the state of health I desired, and I spent in vain, of that I'm sure, a considerable share of wealth. But all was vain, till I tried and advised, in a manner most deserving, the medicine he most highly prized, Richmond's Samaritan Service.

I took his advice; in one short week, I felt no further pain. For doctors no longer I had to seek. For I never felt sick again. I'm healthy and happy the whole day long. So if health be your preserver, the constant burden of my soul, I'm, try Samaritan Service.

"I'll cure the young," "I'll heal the old," "I'll make the whole world better," said Dr. J. Bradfield, the medicine is sold; Drop Dr. Bradfield's letter. He'll give you advice far better than wealth. He'll show you the way to preserve in the best condition your newly found health. By the use of Samaritan Service.
